Get your ostriches and your bay horses ready – the River of Worms is coming to town on April 20! This wonderful travelling museum features the art and poetry of students throughout the state of Georgia. It will only be here until April 9, so hurry and come see it! We'll have a lot of fun for the little ones every Wednesday at 4 p.m. Every Wednesday afternoon, we have a terrific afterschool storytime for elementary and preschool kids. The youngsters can listen to a story. Want to learn more? You're in luck – we've got beginning readers at the library. Come in on Saturday, April 13, at 2:30 p.m. and learn to check, block, loop and stitch. It's fun and only $6 per class. The next one is on April 13! Our next class is on Saturday, April 27 at 2:30 p.m. Of course, there's lots of fun things to do when you go out and about too. Get free admission to the zoo, get into state parks and historic sites free, and even visit the Go Fish Education Center in Augusta at no charge. Don't forget that the tax season on April 15! We've got the forms and instructions that you need at the library. You can get them through the mail or on line for free. What do you get when six famous and powerful couples set sail for the Bahamas in 1940? You get an ex-cop and a Russian mobster, and a couple ofuden: 1,000 miles of donating afghans to people in need.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Matthew's Letter to the Editor, March 20, issue of the Jenkins News, brings up a good example of problem in present day politics. I missed the "Eggs and Issues" event in Millen last month. Since VA hospitals are government run, our elected officials touring the district communities they are elected (and paid) to serve and get input and attempt to ally

The "if-then" examples that Mr. Spann cited as answers given by Congress to our problems are not simple but, like the V A, there's a lot of hard work and diligent concern being put forth by that job well. Too bad we can't elect them for a trial period.

Probably, when our government was created in 1787 (and the elected term of office was a sufficient trial period to prove one's worthiness. In modern times with lobbies writing the legislation, illegal loopholes are put in on purpose and lockstep politics (instituted by Mr. Gingrich), a full term congressman can do a lot of damage before getting the boot. All too often the worst offenders become repeat offenders because of gerrymandering and wealthy special interests.

Stop all this talk about uniting "entitlements"! We paid for it mostly through payroll taxes; it's ours and I don't appreciate tax payers calling us to chase the money that is rightfully

Consider this: Jenkins is one county in a country with hundreds of thousands of counties that have committees in every county. How many counties that have committees in every county with hun-

...